

Section 4. Section eighty-two, of Chapter eighty-three of the Revised Statutes of 1903, is hereby amended by striking out the words "fast or" at the end of the second line thereof, and inserting between the words "thanksgiving" and "the" in the third line thereof, the words "the nineteenth day of April," so that said section eighty-two, when so amended, shall read as follows:

'Section 82. No person shall be arrested in a civil action, on mesne process, or execution, or on a warrant for taxes, on the day of annual thanksgiving, the nineteenth day of April, the thirtieth day of May, the fourth day of July, the first Monday of September, or Christmas; and, on the day of any military training, inspection, review or election, no officer or soldier required by law to attend the same, shall be arrested on any such processes.'

Section 5. This act shall take effect when approved.
